Brief explanation of activities

Introduction of the topic: Nullah is a young aboriginal boy who lives in the Australian outback. He is about to complete his 'rite of passage' or 'walkabout'. A walkabout is a small journey that every boy must do, they go to live and walk for 6 months in the Australian outback. They spend this time learning about nature, animals and aboriginal culture. But he doesn't want to go alone. Will you come with Nullah and help him through his journey?

Aboriginal Games: The children will get to play some traditional aboriginal games, or games themed around the aboriginal culture.

Arts & Crafts.- Koalas and Kangaroos: Arts and Crafts activity where the students must use their creativity to create their favourite Australian animal.

Night Game: Wildlife spotting: the children will get to play outside with their flashlight whilst looking for some native Australian wildlife.

Trekking: The students will go and explore the surrounding areas, play games, sing songs, interacting and speaking in English with the monitors.

Outdoor Games: The students get to play some well-known and some unknown outdoor games, interacting with their friends and the English monitors.

Arts & Crafts.- Making Australian instruments: Music is very important for aboriginal culture, the students will get to create and decorate their own instrument using traditional dot-painting methods.

Australia Day Games: here the students will get to play some typical games played in the Australian playgrounds and complete traditional Australia day activities.

Australia Day Party: The final night of camp, let's decorate the house and celebrate Australia day! (Australia's most popular holiday)

Let's go walk about: let's take the children on a traditional Australian walkabout, they can learn about animals, nature and traditional aboriginal customs.

Treasure Hunt: A well-known activity but with an Australian twist.
